AUSTRIANS SUFFER

With the Italian Army at Trent, Nov. 9 .- (By the Associated Press.)-Amid the rejoicings of this redeemed city, scenes of destruction and starvation are common as one passes over he roads over which the Italian troops are trying to pass the thousands of Austiran prisoners who were cut off by the Italians southwest of Belzano. Every road up to this city is crowded with men and on every hand there are evidences of the collapse of one of Euorpe's mightiest

The horrors of Napoleon's retreat from ussia, it is said by military observers, were trifling, compared with the sufferings of the Austrian troops in this region. Great masses of men wait for long hours to move a few feet or a few hundred yards, to halt anew on a road littered with the carcassts of horses and with cannon pieces of shields, pistols, rifles, broken down auto trucks and machine guns. Many Austrians are dying from sheer fatigue and starvation and not wounds. The Italians are doing all they can to hurry up food supplies, This is difficult, and in tht meantime dead horses are eaten.

Large bodies of Austrians are help-The correspondent passed between Novereto and Trent, a distance of 16 miles, an unending column of men marching, none knew whither They asked orders fro an officer who was with the correspondent, When asked if they knew about the armistice, they said: "We want food. Food is the only thing we are interested in. We are indifferent to war and peace and death-everything but food."

It is estimated that nine Austrian divisions were taken with their staffs. Thirty-nine divisions were partly disorganized, and fifteen, although in bad condition, are retreating from the advancing Italians.

These troops while equipped for their retreat are without orders and go traveling here and there like droves

Returning to the lower levels of the mountains by the way of the Asiago plateau, the correspondent saw further evidences of the devastations of war. There is not a house left standing the town of Asiago, There also is much suffering among the people through the mountains, who are foodless and have been robbed of their possessions. By a miracle the rigorous Alpine weather has not yet set in and these people say: "These ravages are necessary. They remain glorious memories of our salvation."

The proble of feeding the Italians are aking a superhuman efcommon thing to see hardy Italian troops generously toss their own bread rations to lite Austrians, saying laughingly, "tomorrow is another day. We willu eat then.'

ASK DEALERS AT THE CHURCHES TO AGREE TO DEMANDS

DUNWOODY APPEALS TO SHOE DEALERS TO SUBSCRIBE TO U. S. WAR INDUSTRIES BOARD RULING ON LIMITATION OF FOOTWEAR.

Every retail shoe dealer in Escambia county is asked to sign a pledge to abide by the rates fixed for the four groups of shoes which the government is to permit the manufacture of, avenue. by Chairman Bryan Dunwoody of the county council of defense.

The War Industries Board has worked out with the shoe manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers a plan whereby shoes are grouped in four classes and are to be retailed at prices which have been assigned to each class with the approval of the War Industries Board.

An important part of this plan is that each retail shoe dealer shall sign a pledge to the War Industries Board and shall then be furnished a window display card, stating that he is selling shoes on the basis approved by the government.

In order to comply with this request Mr. Dunwoody has requested all Escambia county retail shoe dealers, either exclusively or partly dealing in shoes, to mail him their names and addresses so that they can be forwarded to the War Industries Board at once. The report has been requested ion, 10:30 a. m.; preparatory service 10 to be sent by November 11 if possible a. m. Special communion collection and dealers are urged to comply im- for student fund.
